

4th International Expert Meeting AMuSE

Multilingualism in Research, Society and Education

Conference language: English

March 16 – 17, 2015

Conference Center Wallenberg, Medicinaregatan 20 A, Gothenburg

Welcome to the international conference Multilingualism in Research, Society and Education which is organized by the Department of Swedish at the University of Gothenburg in collaboration with the EU-project AMuSE (Approaches to Multilingual Schools in Europe, <http://amuse.eurac.edu/en/home/default.html>) March 16-17, 2015 in the Conference Center Wallenberg in Gothenburg.

The conference is aimed primarily at policy and decision makers within the area of education at a national and local level, school managers, coordinators and school administrators as well as teacher educators in all subjects.

Plenary speakers during the conference will be invited speakers from the European Commission and the Council of Europe responsible for matters concerning Multilingualism and Education, as well as the following renowned Swedish researchers in the field of multilingualism and second language acquisition:

- Monica Axelsson, professor, Department of Language Education, Stockholm University
- Nihad Bunar, professor, Department of Child and Youth Studies, Stockholm University
- Lena Ekberg, professor, Center for Research on Bilingualism, Stockholm University
- Kenneth Hyltenstam, professor, Center for Research on Bilingualism, Stockholm University
- Inger Lindberg, professor, Department of Language Education, Stockholm University

You can register for the conference on the conference website:

<http://svenska.gu.se/english/research/conference/ffsu-2015/>

Very welcome to Gothenburg in March 2015!

Tore Otterup
Alexander Onysko
Marie Rydenvald